March 2008

Dear High School Senior:

Congratulations on your upcoming graduation from high school and may the remaining time in your senior year be a memorable journey enjoyed with friends and family.

During the coming months you are likely to receive numerous credit card applications and other opportunities for consumer loans. Having a credit card can be a status symbol and more than a convenience but many college students now have multiple credit cards with balances that are difficult to manage. As an association of debt collection businesses, we believe it is important that young citizens understand their personal responsibility for managing financial affairs. Establishing a favorable credit rating during and beyond college will be crucial to your future career and lifestyle. Dealing with credit card debt during college can be a difficult and stressful experience and interfere with concentration on studies and other responsibilities.

To draw graduating students' attention to this subject, our Educational Foundation sponsors a scholarship and essay contest, awarding two winners with a $1,000 college scholarship each. This year's competition is open to 2008 graduating high school seniors who:

- Meet the academic, attendance and citizenship standards of the State of Texas and their school district for graduation in 2008,
- Are a child, legal dependent or grandchild of an employee of an ACA of Texas member,
- Complete and submit the enclosed scholarship application form,
- Submit an official transcript as of 2007 Fall Semester, and
- Submit an essay of 500-750 words using the theme “Building Good Credit for Financial Independence”. Variations of this theme are encouraged as entries will be judged on originality, style, subject knowledge, grammar and punctuation. Essays may be typed or printed.

The submission deadline is April 30, 2008. See the application for details. Winners will be announced in May 2008 in time for graduation.

If you have any questions, please consult with your guidance counselor or contact us at 512-458-8666 or info@texascollectors.com. We look forward to receiving your application.

Sincerely,
